MAKING YOUR CONFESSION

Lent is traditionally a time for making use of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, commonly known as Confession. Anglican use of this sacrament has never been universal. The general Anglican rule regarding the practice of confession is “all may, none must, some should.” If you have never made your confession before, or have not done so for a long time, perhaps this Lent might provide an opportunity to engage in this process of self-examination. The clergy are happy to discuss this sacrament with you, and it is always wise to consult a priest before your first confession.

NORTH MELBOURNE ECUMENICAL STUDY GROUP

“Illuminating Faith: The Spirit in the Desert”

held at
St Mary’s Anglican Church Hall
430 Queensberry Street, North Melbourne
Wednesdays March 13, 20, 27, April 3
6.30pm (soup and bread)
7.00pm (studies commence)

This year’s study ‘The Spirit in the Desert’ is the title of a series of talks by Rowan Williams, available on YouTube. This study is an unofficial guide through those talks. The talks can be complemented by Rowan William’s book on the theme (‘Silence and Honey Cakes’), which is recommended supplementary reading.

The studies introduce the thought of the early Christian ‘desert fathers’, and invite modern believers to be more aware of their own calling to be Christians in the place they find themselves, with the people with whom they’ve been placed.

The study guide can be found as a download on our website stmarys.org.au.

The book can be purchased as a book or an e-book at Amazon or other good book stores
